Lord of praise [F 159] [idafa] in the southern sky, worshipped [stative] in the northern sky.
The circumpolar ["indestructible"] [F 29] (6) stars are under his care ["under the place upon him"], the non-circumpolar ["unwearying"] [F 29] stars are his places.
Just as offering comes forth for him at the command of Geb, so is the Ennead worshipping him.
The ones in the Duat are kissing the earth, [those] in the desert [De Buck marks with "?"] [Gardiner sign G4] are bowing down [F 287] [stative].
The ancestors [Gardiner sign G4!] are in joy [? V] (7) [when] they see him.
The dead ["the ones who are therein"] [Gardiner sign G4!!] are in awe [cf. line 3] of him.
The Two Lands assembled [F 313] [must be adjective/participle, due to what follows] are giving to him adoration [F 8] at the approach [F 197, no determinative] of his majesty.
